SPRING/SUMMER 2018

VANDERBILT-INGRAM CANCER CENTER

LIVING WELL WITH CANCER

SUPPORT TO MEET YOUR INDIVIDUAL NEEDS

At Vanderbilt-Ingram Cancer Center, we're committed to providing exceptional cancer care, including helping patients cope with the physical and emotional demands of cancer. The goal of our Patient and Family Support Services is to educate and engage you and your loved ones with resources to meet your needs, from diagnosis to long after treatment ends.

When faced with a cancer diagnosis, there are many benefits to empowering yourself with information and support. We hope that you'll find valuable resources in this program guide, which includes everything from gentle movement exercise classes and support groups to genetic counseling and the Southeast's only pediatric and adult survivorship clinic.

Wellness partners and service providers include Osher Center for Integrative Medicine at Vanderbilt (OCIM) and Vanderbilt Dayani Center. OCIM combines traditional medicine with complementary therapies that are proven safe and effective. Vanderbilt Dayani Center is a medically-based fitness center which provides rehabilitation and preventive services to patients and community members.

For more information, please call the Patient and Family Resource Center at (615) 322-9799 or visit www.VanderbiltCancerWellness.com.

OSHER CENTER FOR INTEGRATIVE MEDICINE

INTEGRATIVE MEDICINE:

Healing Focused on Your Whole Health

The Osher Center for Integrative Medicine at Vanderbilt is where you'll find health care designed around your whole health—mind, body and spirit.

Integrative medicine goes beyond just treating your symptoms. It's an approach to care that empowers you to be active in your healing and lifelong wellness.

Integrative medicine uses proven, research-based therapies such as yoga, acupuncture, mind-body counseling and massage that work with traditional medicine to help you achieve better health.

We offer complementary therapies to help you heal and we work with your traditional medical care so you can live more fully, cope better with medical conditions and be more engaged in your own health.

Insurance coverage for our services and classes will vary. Most insurance plans cover integrative health consultations and physical therapy with a physician referral. Some plans also cover psychotherapy. Please check with your insurance company to verify what your policy covers.

CURRENT SERVICES AND CLASSES:

We offer these services and classes to help you reach your health goals and live well:

- Acupuncture
- Group Therapy
- Health Coaching
- Integrative Health Consultations
- Integrative Medicine Group Visits
- Massage Therapy
- Mind-Body Counseling
- Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction (MBSR)
- Movement Classes
- Nutrition Counseling

We offer ongoing drop in yoga classes every week. All other classes are done in series ranging from 4 to 8 weeks. Please visit our website: VanderbiltHealth.com/osher/ and click "Class Information" for a current list of our programs and to sign up or call us: (615) 343-1554.

VANDERBILT DAYANI CENTER

The Dayani Center is a medically-based fitness center designed for those who need to exercise and are age 55 or older, have a medical condition, need a warm water pool or individual instruction to exercise safely. The staff of exercise physiologists will design a fitness program that works for you, no matter what challenges you may face. The center also has one of the largest indoor warm water pools in Nashville and offers a wide variety of aquatic and land exercise classes to improve balance, reduce stress, gain strength and lose weight. No doctor's referral is needed to join.

For more information, email:

dayanicenter@vanderbilt.edu or visit <http://www.vanderbilthealth.com/dayani/> to see if you qualify for membership.

Dayani offers four-class passes for $40 per month. Membership, which allows access to all classes and amenities, is $67 per month for individuals and $105 for families. Reduced rates are available for those 65 years and older.

Land-based Classes

Land-based classes include Gentle Yoga, Tai Chi/Qi Gong and Basic Strength and Stability, which are designed to improve strength, balance and reduce stress. Tai Chi, a traditional internal martial arts form, has been widely practiced for health prevention and wellness restoration and teaches the principles of weight shifting, mindful movements, breathing and core movement. Restorative Yoga focuses on building strength, flexibility, stamina, balance through synchronizing movement with breathing.

Aquatic Classes

Ai Chi is a water movement and relaxation program which can be enjoyed by anyone, regardless of fitness level or mobility. It is performed in shallow, warm water (88 degrees) and requires no swimming ability. Aqua shoes are recommended for those with diabetes. New You is a gentle aquatic exercise program which uses water walking and strengthening exercises to help those recovering from illness regain their stamina.

Class passes are available. (615) 322-4751
