Talking points for a meeting

1. We are trying out a new way to spread ideas beyond our siloed teams using an online tool.
2. We would like your help trying it out. There will be a couple ways to participate over the next month. Right now, you can share and comment on ideas.
3. Find it online at vumc.spigit.com.

Potential hooks to use with your team members.

a. We want to include everyone in this. Everyone can participate. Everyone is an equal participant. Everyone has an equal voice.

b. Many of you have some great ideas and I would love to see your great ideas become stars within our medical center.

c. This is a great way for us to spread our influence beyond our team to the entire medical center.

A few key FAQs for Leaders

Why do you want to hear from me?
Everyone has great ideas. The best ideas and solutions may come from anyone. Creativity is not limited by expertise. The strongest organizations want to hear from as many people as possible for creative solutions.

Do I have to do this?
No, participation is optional but we hope you will. The more people who participate the better the ideas that will come from this effort and the more we will learn. You can take part in as much or as little as you want.

How are you going to use my information?
The first goal of IdeaShare is to learn about a new way of sharing and connecting with each other. But we know there will be great ideas to come from this.

How much time and effort will this take?
You can take part as much or as little as you like. The great thing about IdeaShare is that it is designed to let you participate in brief moments during your day, from your desktop or mobile devices. Any amount of participation is valuable.

Help – I want to submit my ideas but I’m having trouble logging into IdeaShare.
